Ex-Serviceman Status Wrongly Claimed by Several Candidates – Automatic Disqualification

The Board has been receiving quite a few applications from Candidates saying that they had erroneously claimed Ex-Serviceman Status and that the Status has to be changed now. In all those cases that have been brought to the notice of the Telangana State Level Police Recruitment Board, action has been taken to effect the necessary modifications in the Applications. In very few cases wherein Candidates requested modification in their data (including Community Status), Board has been taking suitable action.

Consequently, certain Candidates who qualified in the PWTs earlier by virtue of the erroneously claimed Ex-Servicemen Status (especially belonging to Other Communities and Backward Classes) are disqualified now as they got less number of marks than the minimum marks of qualification designated for their Community. All such changes in the Status of Qualification (as discussed in the aforementioned paragraph) are being issued as a Corrigendum to be published in the Login Area of the Candidates in the TSLPRB Website www.tslprb.in. Individual Candidates who are getting affected will also be informed in change of their Qualification Status through text messages on their Registered Mobile Numbers.

All the Candidates who qualified for the PMT / PET and whose Ex-Serviceman Status is showing as ‘Yes’ are requested to check once again if they had wrongly claimed the Ex-Servicemen Status and inform in writing to the Board wherever required so that their genuine qualification can be assuredly determined to avert any disappointment at further Stages of the Recruitment Process. It is clarified once again that whoever qualified by virtue of Ex-Serviceman or any Community Status, by making a wrong claim of such Status is automatically disqualified and there is no use of such Candidates continuing any further in the Recruitment Process.
